Beginning in 2010, Indiana required most businesses licensed to sell alcohol in Indiana to have their owners, managers, and staff attend a Certified Server Training class. Businesses covered by the law include caterers, restaurants, package stores, hotels, and others.

Hoosier Hospitality Consulting provides a Certified Server Training class featuring ServSafe Alcohol®. All participants in the class will receive the Indiana Certificate of Certified Server Training. The certificate, in combination with an Indiana Employee Permit, allows an individual to serve alcohol legally in the state of Indiana.

HHC is listed as a Certified Indiana Trainer with the Indiana Excise Police.
