

Transforming Your Local Economy

When: Wednesday, January 29, 2014
Where: *Harrison County Extension Office
247 Atwood Street, Corydon, IN*
Time: 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
Cost: $20 (Includes Lunch)

Join the Southeast ISBDC, the Chamber of Commerce of Harrison County and Purdue Extension Harrison County to learn how to transform your local and regional economy using strategies that can help communities build on their existing talent and economic resources.

Experts from the Purdue Center for Regional Development, Director Bo Beaulieu and Senior Associate Michael Wilcox will discuss:

- ◇ Asset-based approaches for community and regional development
- ◇ Key components of a systems-based approach for fostering entrepreneurship
- ◇ Assessing your community readiness, strategically leveraging economic clusters
- ◇ Identifying local/regional resources that are here to help you with the process

PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED

For Information:
Diane Fuchs—Southeast ISBDC at (812) 952-9765
Roxxan Rowland—Chamber of Commerce of Harrison County at
(812) 738-0120

To Register:
<http://tinyurl.com/TransformCorydon>